Is installing solar panels illegal in any state?

Technically, no state outlaws or bans solar panels; quite the opposite. Most states have solar access laws that forbid any agreement, covenant, condition, bylaw, or contract that outlaws or limits solar installations by Homeowners Associations (HOA) or other municipal bodies.

Are solar access laws illegal?

With that being said, unpermitted systems are illegal to operate in many American jurisdictions, even in states with solar access laws. What is the difference between solar access laws and solar easement laws?

Are solar panels a viable option?

However, some states still make installing solar panels functionally impossible by creating laws with "reasonable restrictions," such as increased taxing, energy caps, or even billing solar panel users. Combine these laws with a lack of incentive programs, and solar panels are not viable for homeowners in many states.

What happens if a solar panel is under contract with a deceased person?

If a solar panel system is under contract with a deceased individual, it is required to have someone uptake the contract to continue the lien, or remove the panels to cancel the lien.

Is the distributed solar photovoltaic market safe?

In the rapidly evolving solar industry, state and local governments and industry groups are implementing a variety of approaches to ensure that consumers who choose to interact with the distributed solar photovoltaic (DPV) market remain safe and are treated fairly.

What if I have been a victim of Solar fraud?

By law, the contract must be written in the same language the salesperson used to sell you solar. If you think you have been a victim of solar fraud, report the incident to the Contractors State License Board (CSLB) at XXX-XXX-XXXX or at this link. YOU HAVE THE RIGHT to a 3-day cancellation period after signing a contract.
