How do I avoid solar panel scams?

Knowing about solar scams and what to look out for can help you protect your assets and prevent you from becoming victimized. To avoid solar panel scams, we strongly recommend doing your own research and verifying that your solar company is legitimate before signing any contracts. Take time to make the right decision: Never rush into a contract.

Are 'free solar panels' a scam?

Oops! We'll be right back. Sorry, something went wrong. Rest assured, we are working hard to fix the problem as soon as possible. In the meantime, try refreshing this page or visiting our homepage. If you've received an offer for "free solar panels," it could be a scam.

Are solar leases and PPAs a scam?

No, not all leases and PPAs are scams. However, they seem to be a breeding ground for deceptive and predatory practices, including the old "government is paying people to go solar" scam. Related reading: Solar Leases vs. Solar Loans vs. Solar PPAs

Are homeowners paying for solar panels in a lease or PPA?

In short, free solar panel ads are typically for leases and power purchase agreements (PPAs). These arrangements are basically long-term solar system rentals in which the solar company owns the panels and homeowners pay a monthly fee in lieu of their electricity bill. So, are homeowners technically paying for solar panels in a lease or PPA? No.

Can free solar panels bring you in on a deal of lifetime?

Sunlight is one of the most widely available resources on the planet. With recent investments and advances in solar energy technology, more Americans than ever before can harness the sun's rays and power up their homes and businesses. Riding this historic trend, some are even claiming they can bring you in on a deal of lifetime: free solar panels.

Can you get scammed if your roof panels don't work?

In the worst cases, homeowners have been left making payments on overpriced systems that don't work, with little to no support from the installation company that put the panels on their roof. To avoid getting scammed, you need to know what to look out for and when to walk away.
