

Photovoltaic panels warranty 25 years

What should I look for in a solar panel performance warranty?

Ideally, you should look for a solar panel performance warranty with the following conditions: Some solar manufacturers will guarantee a degradation rate as low as 0.25% per year, and a performance warranty period of up to 30 years. The best solar companies offer homeowners an installation warranty of their own.

What types of warranties cover solar panels?

There are two basic types of warranties that cover solar panels. A product warranty protects you from defects in a solar panel stemming from material quality or manufacturing errors. This is also referred to as an equipment or materials warranty.

Which solar panel manufacturer has the best warranty coverage?

There are a few manufacturers that go above and beyond with their warranty protection. SunPower is, by far, the best solar panel manufacturer in terms of warranty coverage for its products, and Tesla is another excellent provider that has above-average coverage overall. Some of the best warranties come from the following manufacturers:

Should you buy a warranty for a solar energy system?

When you invest in a solar energy system, one of the most crucial things to consider is the warranty offer. Manufacturer warranties provide a layer of financial protection for you in the event of faulty solar equipment, performance issues, and more.

Can a solar panel warranty be void?

The following are some common ways in which a solar panel warranty can be voided. Most solar manufacturers only offer a warranty if your PV system is installed by professionals. In other words, you will most likely void the warranty if you attempt a DIY installation, even if you manage to install the panels properly.

Are solar panel warranties transferable in a home sale?

In most cases, solar panel warranties are transferable to the new owner in a home sale. However, some warranties are restricted to the original owner, so it is crucial to clarify this point with the manufacturer and installer offering the warranty.
