Do I need insurance for a solar panel system?

In most cases, there is no need to get additional insurance to cover your solar panel system. However, since solar is worth thousands or even tens of thousands of dollars and can add around $10,000 to $30,000 of value to your home, we might recommend raising your coverage limit to cover the cost of your home with the solar panel system.

Does property insurance cover solar panels?

Property insurance typically covers solar system components beyond the terms of the manufacturer's warranty. For example, if a PV module fails for reasons covered by and during the manufacturer's warranty, the manufacturer is responsible for replacing it, not the insurer.

Do solar PV projects need insurance?

Insurance is based on statistics, which are not there yet. The only way for insurance companies to respond is to assign the highest possible risks to solar PV projects and charge for that accordingly. Solar panel project developers are already able to purchase PV insurance from several insurance companies.

Do solar panels affect home insurance?

As with any alteration to your home, solar panels can and will change the cost of home insurance. The total cost of your homeowner's insurance is based on the value of your property. This value includes the structure of the house as well as the belongings kept inside.

Does insurance cover rooftop solar?

While rooftop solar is typically covered in a standard policy, your insurer may or may not cover other types of installations, such as ground-mounted solar panels and solar panel carports. Whether or not these separate systems are covered depends on your insurer's policy.

How much does solar panel insurance cost?
